About

Sarah is a hard working gymnast and student, she participates in the band as well as track and has been an active member of Web leaders which is a program through school that aids students in adjusting to the middle school experience. In addition, Sarah has been able to maintain a 4.0 GPA and was an honor roll member through middle school. Sarah has also been honored with the principles award, this award is only given to select students for their excellence and leadership qualities they have exhibited over their middle school careers. Sarah not only displays leadership and excellence in school but also brings it into her gymnastics career. Sarah is one of the first to comfort a struggling teammate and helps with our recreational department when her schedule permits.

During her free time she enjoys being on the water and boating with her family members and friends.
